Greetings Karli,

Thank you for your valued leadership as the director of the District Four Coalition!

Neighborhood engagement has strong roots in Portland, and this impressive work continues, in large part, because of your dedication, coordination, and leadership.

As a City, we are inspired to collaborate with you to continue advancing the frameworks of participation and involvement that have made us the envy of the nation for civic pride and engagement. I am also grateful for the work of Adam Lyons (copied) for his work to renew the annual agreements and initial payment in this new City budget cycle. We appreciate your patience as those are finalized by late summer and early fall.

In the meantime, please email your most recent contact lists for your primary Neighborhood Association contacts, preferably in Excel or .CSV file, to adam.lyons@portlandoregon.gov by Monday, Sept. 21, 2026. And, in your next communication with your Association board members, please ask them to review their listing in the City's online directory of neighborhood associations here, and submit any contact updates here.

We look forward to this next year of civic engagement through Neighborhood Associations, in tandem with District Coalitions and the Office of Community & Civic Life. And, thank you again for your tremendous care and commitment for this place we all call home.

Sincerely,

Mayor Wilson

Keith Wilson
